3. Make appointments to City Commissions.

BACKGROUND

The Los Alamitos Municipal Code provides for the appointment of residents to City Boards and Commissions. City Council policy has determined interested parties, including incumbents, need to submit an application for consideration by the Council.

Vacancies have occurred on the Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Arts, Personnel Appeals, and Traffic Commissions. Availability Notices were posted at City facilities, on the City's website and social media sites. Copies were provided to the press inviting residents to apply for these positions.

DISCUSSION

In November 2022, Staff began recruiting for the annual scheduled upcoming vacancies on City Commissions. New applicants have been invited to interview this evening and were provided interview questions in advance. Incumbents were advised interviews would not be necessary, but they were invited to participate in the meeting at their discretion.

Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Arts Commission

(Two full terms expiring December 2025, One unexpired term expiring December 2023)

Former Commissioner Trisha Murphy was appointed to the City Council which resulted in a vacant position with the term expiring December 2023. Incumbents Alex Duran and Ray Joseph have reapplied. New applicants include Wendy Cope, John C. Duff, and Joseph Hastie.

Five applications have been received for a total of three positions. New appointees would begin service in January 2023. Two appointees would have a three-year term ending December 2025. One appointee would serve the remainder of the unexpired term ending December 2023.

Personnel Appeals Commission

(One full term expiring December 2026)

Incumbent Robert Lee has reapplied. Applicant Lisa L. Tekolian has also applied.

Two applications have been received for one position. Appointees would begin service in January 2023, with a full four-year term ending December 2026.

Traffic Commission

(Five full terms expiring December 2025)

Incumbents Randy Hill, Javier Mejia, Bruce Murphy, and, Daniel Patz, have reapplied. New applicants include Maggie Marchese.

Five applications have been received for a total of five positions. Appointees would begin service in January 2023, with a full three-year term ending December 2025.

FISCAL IMPACT

None.
